

BBC world news: widening

Go to the BBC's news web-site. Choose one of the stories from the news summary and find the written report relating to this story. Use the links on the BBC's news web-site to investigate other web-sites connected with your chosen story.

Did you find any additional information that was not included in the BBC's reports? Did you discover a different point of view to the one put forward by the BBC? Are the events of the story any clearer as a result of investigating these other web-sites?

Link	Additional information